Vernon Mason Is Sent To Eldridge

Vernon L. Mason, arrested a few weeks ago as one of the bandits who held up a Santa Rosa service station, Friday was ordered committed by Superior Judge Donald Geary to the Sonoma State home at Eldridge for observation. The commitment was made on the recommendation of the county probation officer.

The case of Mason's companion, Delin Lafayette Wilson, was continued to March 22.

Samuel Herndon, Jr., recently arrested in Petaluma for writing bogus checks, pleaded guilty and requested probation. He is represented by Attorney Lewis H. Cromwell, of Petaluma.

Trial of Fred Williams, charged with petty theft with a prior conviction, was set for March 25. The case will be tried before Judge Edward I. Butler of the Marin county superior court. Williams was arrested sev-
